

Overview

The Jessie Dual Motor Lift Chair offers exceptional comfort from the moment you recline, thanks to its plush, three-cushion back design. A powered adjustable headrest lets you find the perfect position for reading or watching TV—even when fully reclined—while providing outstanding neck support. When you’re ready to stretch out completely, the chair reclines to a full 180 degrees. Enhance your relaxation further with the built-in massage and soothing heat functions, designed to help you fully unwind. Simply sit back and enjoy complete comfort, support, and luxury. After something smaller, try the Jessie Petite.
